

50/50 Raffle. Invite employees to buy a ticket for a chance to win money. Once raffle tickets are sold, select a winner. 50% of the ticket sales goes to the winner and 50% goes to the campaign.

Auction Off Dinner. Employees volunteer to cook dinner and employees bid on the delicious meals. Coordinate a drop off at winner's home address or at the office.

Baby Picture Match Game. Employees post their baby photos and contestants pay to match employees to their pictures. The employee with the highest number of correct matches wins a prize.

Bake Sale. Co-workers buy employee-donated baked goods with proceeds benefiting the campaign.

Balloon Pop. Put a prize note in each balloon. Be sure to have one big prize. Place balloons in a contained area and have participants pay to pop balloons for prizes.

Bean Bag Toss. Charge an entry fee for a single elimination bean bag tournament. Winner receives bragging rights for a year or different prize.

Bingo. Create Bingo cards and sell to employees. Every day, email a bingo number to all participants. The first one to reply "BINGO" wins a prize, and the game continues until all prizes are distributed. To customize, create Bingo card with phrases said during meetings or in emails, common situations that happen while working from home or in a day at the office.

Board Game Tournament. Team up and bring in your favorite classic board games for a bracket style tournament!

Build Your Own Ice Cream Sundaes. Have a wide variety of sundae toppings available for sale for employees to build their own sundaes.

Butter Carving. Individuals are tasked with creating a sculpture made from only butter. The best sculpture wins!

Calendar Sale. Employees submit their own photos (based on your campaign theme) to create a custom calendar that you can sell to raise funds for the campaign.

Car Wash. Employees volunteer to wash cars for a fee. All proceeds go to the campaign.

Cereal Bar. Bring in the classic childhood favorite's: Trix, Cocoa Pebbles, Cinnamon Toast Crunch, and host a morning cereal bar! Charge per bowl or offer a sample flight option to try them all!

Chronological Order Contest. Pick any topic and employees have to put them in chronological order correctly. You can do a timeline of events from history or something fun like song releases or photos of your building or city through history.

Cookbook Sale. Compile recipes from employees to create a custom cookbook. Sell it to employees with proceeds benefitting the campaign.

Cookie Decorating Contest. Employees decorate cookies and vote for the winners. Employees can then purchase some of the winning cookies as a donation.

Costume Contest. Solicit volunteers to dress up for Halloween and submit pictures for judging or have other staff vote on costumes. Provide prizes to the top three contestants.

Donut Eating Contest. Employees raise money for the campaign by sponsoring contenders on a per-donut-eaten basis. The winner is determined by either eating the most donuts in a time frame or the first to finish a set number of donuts.

Draw Your Boss Contest. (Get boss' permission first.... Of course). Charge to enter - post submissions and the winning drawing wins a prize!

Easter Egg Hunt. Hide Easter Eggs around the office. Once employees find an egg they can purchase the egg to see if there's a prize inside. Fill the eggs with small prizes like candy and have one big prize hidden inside one egg!

Executive Costume Contest. With your boss' permission, allow workers to contribute to the jar with the costume they'd like their boss to dress as for Halloween. The jar with the most change/money is what they will dress as! (Example- 1 jar labelled "Ghost", 1 jar labelled "Witch", etc....)

Family Feud. Two teams compete against each other guessing common answers. Team can be comprised of departments.

Fit Fundraising. Offer a lunchtime yoga or workout class that coworkers can contribute to join.

Food Truck Friday. Have a local food truck come to the office for lunch with lunch as a donation to the campaign.

Guess the Number. Fill a clear jar with candy and have employees pay for a chance to guess the number of pieces in the jar. The most accurate guess wins the candy.

Ice Cream Cart. On a hot day, visit employee cubicles and offices selling popsicles, ice cream sandwiches and other cold snacks. Donate proceeds to the campaign.

Jeans Days. Charge employees a fee to wear jeans to work. Employees can buy several days in bulk for a discounted price.

Jeopardy. Create a custom Jeopardy board (or play online using a site like JeopardyLabs.com). Teams pay to play, and prizes are awarded to winners.

Kickball Tournament. Teams donate a small sum to participate. Spice up the game by adding obstacles that can be “purchased” by teams or individuals. Example: the opposing team must kick with their nondominant foot.

Lego Competition. Embrace your inner child and host a Lego building competition around your campaign theme.

Lunch and Learns. Welcome a charity speaker to talk about an issue facing our community and how they are working to address it.

Minute to Win It. Put together several games from the show "Minute to Win It" and have team members compete. Encourage leadership to play and invite everyone to watch.

Nacho/Pretzel Sale. Sell large plates of nacho and/or soft pretzels with cheese and jalapeno peppers. Donate proceeds to the campaign.

Office Flocking. Make cut-outs of pink flamingos (or another animal!) and charge co-workers to flock other people's offices or cubes. Take the cut-outs or plastic flamingos and decorate the flockee's area.

Office Olympics. Have a tricycle or office chair race. Use items around your work location for golfing, shooting baskets, etc. Have spelling contests, typing contests, competitions to develop the most persuasive or most complimentary memo, etc. Devise rules for each race in advance and seek participants, combine the event with a cookout as an incentive and designing award medals to display in the cubicles of winners.

Online Classes. Employees pay to participate in a virtual class hosted by one of your colleagues, like painting, cooking, yoga, etc. You could also find someone to donate their time so all proceeds go to the campaign.

Order Up! Take orders from your co-workers for takeout from their favorite restaurant. Pick up the food and charge a delivery fee benefiting the campaign.

Parking for Pledges. Pledges of a certain amount are entered into a drawing for a premium parking space for a particular time frame.

Penny Wars. Divide the office by department or teams and have a money jar assigned to each. Members of each department deposit pennies, nickels, and dimes into their own jar and place quarters or "green" into the jars of the other departments. Pennies count as positive while quarters and "green" are negative. The department with the highest number (or often the case, the least negative number) wins a prize.

Pet Costume Contest. Solicit pictures from volunteers of their pets dressed up in Halloween or silly costumes for judging or have other staff vote. Provide prizes to the winners. Local pet stores often will donate gift cards or products for charity so solicit early in the campaign for pet friendly prizes.

Pet Photo Contest. Employees upload a picture of their pet and employees vote on the cutest pet photo, silliest pet photo, etc.

Pet Picture Match Game. Employees upload a picture of their pet and employees pay to match employees up with the pet photo.

Pie Toss. For a fee, employees nominate one another to receive a pie in the face. The top four with the most votes receive a pie in their face.

Pony Races. Vote on which employees will ride a pony stick around your parking lot in a competitive race!

Potluck. Post a sign-up sheet for employees to bring entrees, salads, and desserts to ensure a variety of good food.

PowerPoint Competition. Teams will be assigned a random topic and will be given 5 minutes to present a PowerPoint presentation on the topic. Pick a random topic, preferably something obscure. Invite coworkers to watch and vote on which presentation was the best.

Prank for a Purpose. Allow employees to pay to prank a co-worker. This could be gift wrapping or post-it-ing their office or cube, decorating it with yard gnomes, or whatever else you can think of! Co-workers can pay extra for prank protection.

Pumpkin Carving Competition. Carve pumpkins and submit for the best design to win.

Puzzle Swap. Participants pay to join the group and swap puzzles with other puzzle lovers! Same idea could work for books or other at-home hobbies.

Raffle/Auction. Have employees donate their talents for an auction — handcrafted jewelry, scrapbook services or a musical performance. You can also have teams create raffle baskets for employees to bid on. For online auctions, you can use the free site 32Auctions.

Root Beer Float Sale. Buy necessary ingredients. Floats made and served by executives can be a fun treat!

Rubber Duckies. Write numbers on the bottom of rubber ducks and have prizes corresponding to those numbers. Charge participants for each time they pick up a floating duck from a large tub of water.

Scavenger Hunt. Create a scavenger hunt around the office or for employees to complete at home. The first to find all items wins!

Sell Custom Kits. Put together kits for employees to purchase and keep at their desk. Kits could be "germ buster kits" with tissue, hand sanitizer, etc. or "super snack kits" with candy and snacks.

Soup Line. Employees sign up to bring their favorite soup or bread. Set up at lunch time and charge participants fees for a bottomless bowl to try one or all! (Bring your own reusable bowl.)

Spelling Bee. Hold a spelling bee with an entry fee. Have galley observers place bets on their favorite participants.

Spirit Week. Theme each day of campaign where employees dress up. Example week could be Favorite Shirt Day, Lumberjack Plaid Day, Hat Day, Biker Day, and Fancy Friday.

Sports T-Shirt Day. Charge employees a fee to wear their favorite sports team's jersey or t-shirt. Charge them double if it is not a Wisconsin team.

Tailgate Party. Hold a pay-per-plate cookout during lunch with tailgate items, include games like bags and volleyball for fun.

Taste of the World Luncheon. Employees pay a fee to eat a buffet of food from around the world that their co-workers bring from home, or from a local restaurant.

Trivia. Employees pay to participate in a survey about Milwaukee, your company and anything related to your campaign theme!

Volunteer Activity. Plan a volunteer activity like kit packing, notes of encouragement or a supply drive during your campaign to benefit one of the participating nonprofits!

Walking Taco Sale. Sell individual bags of corn chips with divided plastic or foam containers filled with taco meat, cheese, sour cream, tomatoes, lettuce, packets of hot sauce, etc. Price accordingly.

White Elephant Sale. Allow employees to bring funny items to be displayed on a co-worker's desk for the duration of the campaign. They can pay to move the items to another worker's desk, otherwise the items must stay up all campaign.

Wii Olympics. Organize a series of one-on-one Wii sport challenges among your co-workers.